

Piebald, Just A Simple Plan

You got a window in the basement.
You got a perfect view, but you don't care.
Have you ever seen the things that go on outside?
You got a door to your apartment
So you can step outside and see the sites
Downtown looks like don't own if you look at it right

You just might sleep yourself to death. Yaaa
Your guts will spill onto your bed.
I've got a window sill that I mentioned earlier where you can rest your chin. Yaaa

There also is a seat that I've heard exist somewhere, for the perfect rest. Yaa

Downtown looks like don't own if you look at it right

It's just a simple plan to keep you awake.
It's just a simple plan to keep you awake.
No matter what I try, your eye balls seem to hide.

After saying that you won't sleep in ever again,
you slept all morning long. Yaaa
If you bored than you must be boring too. Did I st-st-st-st-stutter?
Your own kind of corruption leads to sleeping in.
If you wanted to wait, then I'll just start the clock,
And see how much time you waste. Yaaa
