

Piebald, Present Tense

i would like to think about it not just take a glimpse around it you know just what i mean if you got another minute it would be nice to be in it why would we move so fast?

even with the best of reasons you still can't go changing seasons and autumn leaves are changing hue and if you're home

i'll pick up sometime
we'll go out driving
and see the sights and sounds and way it used to be

it's always nice to hear an oldie turned to putty but that's the old beat the newest heart of rock and how can we judge if your summer was better than mine and how can we tell if the moment is getting bright and words flow like wine and everyones taking their time to see what i mean lean, furious machine

so if you're home
i'll pick up sometime
we'll go out driving
and see the sights and sounds and way it used to be when i was young

solo

there is never a door to ... just a good friend the end didn't come true no it's tuesday ... fair