

Pierce The Veil, She sings in the morning

Wake up!
A voice hits the air on a lonely coast
And I'll sing along like a prayer for you
I can dream up the words

(I'll never see your face again)
If we wake at, if we wake at all
She sings to me
If we wake at, if we wake at all
(If we wake at all, if we wake at all)

We'll try to change
They say love will never mean a thing
Still our hearts beat
So come on

So stuck on the only thing that we know
What we know starts to waste

If we wake at, if we wake at all
She sings to me (Can we be sure?)
If we wake at, if we wake at all

Oh my God
