

Pilate, Before Your Eyes

Wake up
Look out your window
Is there someone else
With which you'd rather be?

I've had enough
Getting colder
Just string me up
Throw away the key

We're closing now
Each time I see you
Rolling back
I see its maze between

And I'll catch
With my disguise
My destitute
Before your eyes
Baby, baby please
But I'll battle it, for you n' me, no

You're turnin' this
Do you think you know me?
Who's knowledge that
Wants to throw on trees
As futile day
You lift me off the world

At the gate you turn
Walked away from me
Yeah, yeah

I'll catch
With my disguise
My destitute
Before your eyes
Baby, baby please
But I'll battle it, for you n' me
Yeah I know

As the night comes on
I'm watching you sleep
I sell my soul
Just to feel you breathe
Mine got trouble 'round
But I'm not comin' down

And I'll catch
With my disguise
My destitute
Before your eyes
Baby, baby
And I'll battle it, for you n' me
But I'll catch
With my disguise
My destitute
Before your eyes
Baby, baby

And I'm fallin' on your lonely
Coming around still
Hittin' the ground there
Singing for you

Am I singing for you?
Am I preordained?
Why would you wager
With a key?
With a key?

With a key ...

With a key ...
