

Pilate, Fall Down

Standing in the wind and rain, I'm underneath your wheel tonight,
Was underneath your heel tonight, this truth has brought us to our knees,
Waiting here out in the street a prisoner under these lights,
Was holding fast not holding tight, will time reward us some reprieve.

And it's a lie we both believed (fall down)
Now you're lying there with me (fall down)

(fall down) Just lay your head down'

Reading through the news today, I'm picturing your fading smile,
I'm picturing your frozen eyes, those dreaded words slip from your lips,
Could we please just start again, without this sense of pending dread,
These thunderclouds lie overhead, without this cage around my bed, love

It's a lie we both believed (fall down)
Now you're lying there with me (fall down)

(Fall down) Just lay your head down'

It's a lie we both believed (fall down)
Now you're lying here with me (fall down)
Can we try to make it clean (fall down)

It's a secret that's unspoken, t'was the cause of all your tears,
We'd rip the night wide open, t'was the morning that we feared,
There's glass upon this playground, there's cocaine in your church,
Is there water in this desert, is there water in this desert?

Fall Down'
