

Pilate, You

And I'm walking wounded, in my sleep
And the work on my hand so sickens me
Tonight ...

And the dreams come on
Like a raging flood
I can feel the flames and taste the blood, now
And her arms find me waiting
Come in now

And today we are victims
Heavy price
And time will not heal the Scars we hide

We walked on home
There's a funeral pyre
Carrying crosses
And does that guy know?
And her arms find me waiting
Come in now
Come in now, yeah

You're all I need
I've walked beside the chosen one
I've fought beside forgotten sons
And I...
And I'll make you safe
For all the fires that scar this land
And all the blood upon my hands tonight
Just lay me down
Tonight

And I lie
With you tonight
For all the stars
Behind your eyes
And I'm free
Free to fly
Through your mind

Your mind...
Yeah...

You're all I need
I've walked beside the chosen one
I've fought beside forgotten sons
And I...
And I'll make you safe
For all the fires that scar this land
And all the blood upon my hands, tonight
And just lay me down, tonight

And just lay me down

And I'm walking wounded...
In my sleep...
