

Pillar, Let It Out

I don't know if we'll ever really see the day
When we look around and we don't know what to say
How did we lose our way? I don't know if we'll ever really see a change
If this is how we show our thanks, I think it's time we rearrange
I don't know if we'll ever really break away
We've been holding on for so long now, I think we're scared to run away
I don't know if we ever really learned to pray
So, I drop down to my knees
And I cry out, "Can You help me, please?"

Let it out, can You hear me?
Can You hear me cry?
Let it out, don't hold back, all this I got inside
Let it out, can You hear me?
Can You hear me cry?
Let it out, don't hold back now
We've got to let it out

I don't know if we'll ever really be the same
Or could it be that we feel a sense of shame?
We forgot from where we came
I don't know if we try to make it all a game
I think it's time we take the blame
And get back, rekindle this flame

So, when I cry out, are You listening?
I know You can hear me, I know You can hear me
You're my Comfort, can You hear me?
I know You can hear me, You're my Comfort
Can You hear me? Can You hear me?
