

Pilot Speed, Ambulance

I'm a lover and a whore
I've been rich but I've been poor
It's not over now

We are the fortunes that we keep
Creating bonds around our feet?
It's not over now

Call me an ambulance
'Cause I'm fading away
I'm here overwhelmed
I'm here overwhelmed

Lost in the shuffle
I'll fall to the back
I'm here overwhelmed
I'm here overwhelmed

I've walked down these streets
With my head down in defeat
It's not over now

Taken for granted and run foul
Just to appreciate you now
My world's an island waiting to be found

Call me an ambulance
I'm fading away
I'm here overwhelmed
I'm here overwhelmed

Lost in the shuffle
I'll fall to the back
I'm here overwhelmed
I'm here overwhelmed

Can I let you in?
Can I let you in?
How do I begin?
How do I begin?

Can I let you in?
Can I let you in?
And how do I begin?
How do I begin?

You can hide behind these walls
But darlin' every city falls
And comes crumbling down
And while her sister lies with me
Fortune smiles through broken teeth
Just waitin' for you to lay her down

Call me an ambulance
I'm fading away
I'm here overwhelmed
I'm here overwhelmed
Forever ever stumbling
Down this trail
