

Pilot Speed, Over Ground

Remember the lights that left you
Nowhere to go
Just caught in a spotlight lying there
Remember the smell your senses overflow
Remember my whispers in your ear

Take a ride in the atmosphere
Save your prayers,
They won't help you here
Slowly turning your heart around
Slowly turning your heart around
You're over-ground
You're over-ground

You're almost in
You're over-ground

This morning the scars appear
On your thick skin
A lifelong badge that you will wear
A memory flickers through your entire mind
All your strength just disappears

Take a ride in the atmosphere
Save your prayers,
They won't help you here
Slowly turning your heart around
Slowly turning your heart around
You're over-ground
You're over-ground

You're almost in
You're over-ground

This gap is wide
I know you're tired
You're almost in
This gap is wide

It's only love
It's only love
It's only love
It's only love

These are hours that I long to kill
There's a heart that you long to fill
There's a hope that your soul commands
Just reach out, take it in your hand

You're over-ground
You're over-ground
You're almost in
You're over-ground

You can crawl, crawl, crawl
In vain to shed your skin
When your lonesome servant calls
Will you rise to let him in?

You can crawl, crawl, crawl
Will you rise to let him in?

Remember the lights that left you
