

Pinback, The Yellow Ones

I feel my head goin' down again
You disappear from the foreground
I'm unaware which way is down
A major repair is underway
Require a blanket of silence

There's some strange shape in the sky.
A bright light over the horizon.
It's changing direction now.
It's headed towards the village,
Better warn...
Hey! Above you!
Waves about to...
Verified on here. Terrified, aren't you?
Where am I?
Home Ahead. Fall over.
Vein empty.
