

Pink, Can We Pretend (ft. Cash Cash)

i remember conversations we were dancing up on tables taking pictures when we had nowhere to post you're laughing

I was cryin'
we were dancing
we were dying
sometimes I don't know how we walked away

if I'm honest
what I like
were the things we didn't know every morning
every night
I'll be beating down
your door
just to tell you what I'm thinkin'
but you already know

screw this
I don't wanna let it go

so Can We Pretend
that I'm 22 today
dancing on the tables with you Can We Pretend
that we all end up ok.
I just wanna to forget with you

Can We Pretend
Can We Pretend
that I really like your shoes
Can We Pretend
cause honestly reality it bores me let's pretend let's make believe
can we
Can We Pretend
Can We Pretend

I remember what we waned what we'd never take for granted how our daddy's issues took us to LA
if I'm honest
what I miss is not knowing' what to say and the feeling of your lips and it haunts me every day when you'd tell me what you're thinking but I'd already know

screw this

that we all end up ok.

Can We Pretend
can we
