

Pink Cream 69, Best For You

So lonely, divided
I'm not where I wanna be
My conscience is weighted
The responsibility

And so I try, got to find a way
To make it right, don't you forget about me?
It all takes time
Don't you ever think you're left behind?

All I want is the best for you
You deserve it, too, my innocent child
Tell me something that I can do
I'd be happy to, my innocent child
All I want is the best for you
You deserve it, too, tell me something new

The anguish, I suffer
I want it to let me be
No harm was intended
But now it is haunting me

And so I try, got to find a way
To make it right, don't you forget about me?
It all takes time
Don't you ever think you're left behind?

All I want is the best for you
You deserve it, too, my innocent child
Tell me something that I can do
I'd be happy to, my innocent child
All I want is the best for you
You deserve it, too, tell me something new

It takes my heart out
Got to live before we learn
It takes my heart out
I'll let my bridges burn

And so I try, got to find a way
To make it right, don't you forget about me?
It all takes time
Don't you ever think you're left behind?

All I want is the best for you
You deserve it, too, my innocent child
Tell me something that I can do
I'd be happy to, my innocent child

All I want is the best for you
You deserve it, too, my innocent child
Tell me something that I can do
I'd be happy to, just the best for you
You deserve it, too, just the best for you
I'd be happy to, my innocent child
