

Pink Cream 69, Face In The Mirror

she sees her face in the mirror eyes surrounded in black see the girl but don't fear her she's too high attack and her eyes are blue
they fill up with sorrow
she looks straight at you she can't tomorrow

face in the mirror
what have you done?

she sees blood on her fingers I see fear in her eyes she's changin'. she's changin' see her bleached-out skin she's cryin', she's dyin' she can never win

and her eyes see truth
they fill up with sorrow
she won't see tomorrow

she gave in temptation she just wanted to feel she's at her destination now it's all so surreal that face in the mirror lookin' back on you that face always tell the truth

what have you done?
