

Pink Cream 69, High As A Mountain

Got to face the truth
& change the way I live
Thrown away my youth
& all I had to give
So now I choose my destiny
The game of life has followed me
I'll cast aside my misery
& make the rules so I can see

Cause I'm high as a mountain
Flying high above to touch the sky
High as a mountain
Only peace of mind can make me cry

Now I'm feeling strong & going where I choose even if I'm wrong so wrong
I know that I can't lose
Will the future set me free?
& take away its hold on me
Innocence will hold the key
& all I ask is 1 last plea

Cause I'm high as a mountain
Flying high above & touch the sky
High as a mountain
Tell me I'm alive
High as a mountain
Flying high above to touch the sky
High as a mountain
Only peace of mind can make me cry

Why does it make me cry?

I've seen the goodness turn to bad
I've seen the happy change to sad
I've felt the heat turn into cold
But now I'm stronger

Got to face the truth?
Oh, I don't know
Thrown away my youth
I'm not wasted
