

Pink Cream 69, Sonic Dynamite

Listen and you will believe.
Echeos og screaming to give you glory
more than you'll ever conceive thundering walls gonna tell the story
Shut down the lights.
Release the might
Tension hangs thick in the air.
We got the means so break at the seams
Feeling the power you bear

(Chorus)

Stand up the moment is right we're gonna tear through those walls
Hold on, there's no end in sight
Let the music bite.
The sonic dynamite
Let's light it
The sonic dynamite

Like a fire we can rise and fall.
Through the madness we can take it all.
Powered by the force you give to me.
Got the makings for a unity.
Now that I know that I.
Got no time left to waste.
Come on and witness the final fury.
You are the new founded race.

Surrender your mind when you face the jury.
Open your eyes.
See no disguise.
Mystical magic will rise.
Now you can fly.
So, let's have a try
Knowing there'll be no sur prise

(Chorus)

The sonic dynamite
Let's light it
The sonic dynamite
Don't fight it
The sonic dynamite
The sonic dynamite
The sonic dynamite
The sonic dynamite
The sonic dynamite
The sonic dynamite
