

Pinkeye, Only The Lonely

V1

You'll know what i'm going through when you're livin' on your own
People always stare at you when you walk around alone
Soon your friends will leave you, just like you thought you left me
Empty rooms re-run cartoons is all you'll f*!kin' see.

C

(F*!k you, Hate you, Killed you), why aren't you dead?
(F*!k you, Hate you, Killed you), for screwing with my head.

V2

Just wait 'till midnight when the ball drops on your face
You'll spend the New Year on your own in this cold place
Nobody will be there when you're reaching for the knife
Only the lonely have to lead an empty life.
