

Pinkly Smooth, Mezmer

Today I saw my brother
Into hell, for evermore
Choice there was no other
Im sad to say, its not the last time
I look into your body
Fill you up with enemies
Its wave, oh, for the next life
I dont know if I alone want you
She says what about my story time
Afraid, a little side of it is under spy
Some will eventually go out and die.
I think he really wants to die.
I dont really want to die
I think he really swallowed
Raise it up to the lord,
If I die tomorrow, try to pull on me
Come to me with nothing
Watch you bleed, forever more
Soon he runs into his time, holding on
Choices on my own tongue
Im strong enough, such I can deem, of
There is so long here.
Its not enough for the last time
I look into your body,
Fill you up with enemies,
Its wave oh for the next life
I dont know if I alone want you.
Yeah
Saket has some better things to hug you by my time
I went for the study of the evil souls and I wish they replied
Well, I sat down on your stone and I talked with you for a while
And did you think that it was worth it
Its burnin on its head
And I wont believe this even happens here
I wont rest until you bloody
Sanest, darn this, I cant get you out of sight
Youre fucking fault
Sick for ya, sign of amaze
Sick for ya, youll be numbing for days
For the way, these mother fuckers never fail.
Sick for ya
So, sick for ya
