

PinkPantheress, Angel (piosenka z filmu Barbie) johnny my baby tell me all the details for tomorrow jonny my baby's hands they grip my fingers when they're cold

He could be one to make me never freeze again because no one is as romantic as him i want you to know everyone told me life was hard but it's a piece of cake

even if jonny hasn't answered in a couple days

you won't check your phone so you can't tell me you're okay because

jonny my baby
did it always have to end this way

cos one day
one day my baby just went away

my angel
you're what haunts me now you're away
