

Pinnawela, Joy in my belly asking for the light to be awake always looking outside of myself they dont teach us bout Walking inner way

They want us just to follow the greatest names
But I feel like its closer
Not in a church
Not in heaven
Not on a stage
I am vegetarian
Just dont eat my friends
Believe in compassion and understanding Trying to respect my body that serves me
Thanks the creator that teaches me, repairs me
Its the joy in my belly
When Im not afraid
My heart full of love this is my faith thats what I pray for
