

Pinnawela, Ma man

Hey my darling wont u tell me
Do you treat me seriously?
Youre my man right?
Youre my man right?
Youre my man right?
I wanna know the future
I wanna know our plans
I wanna know how many kids
Would u like to have
You are so quiet I dont know does it
Mean that you dont want me to
Asking u bout all your plans and those things
Connected with us and our future
You are not sure about us about me
And I dont expect you to be
But let us be crazy and let us dreaming
Tell me you love me for real, real.
I wanna know my darling
Do you treat me seriously?
I wanna know my sugar
Do u love me for real
I wanna know the future
I wanna know our plans
I wanna know how many kids
Would u like to have
Youre my man right?
Youre my man right?
Youre my man right?
I dont think that Im too young
To dream and feel what I feel
But everybody knows
That when u really love
Youre not afraid of making plans with her
I am yellow you are blue
Together we create green
But if you feel just blue
Dont wanna changing you
Ill keep my yellow pure and I will go
Did you hear me?
I am warning you
I will go
