

Pinnawela, Pinnawela intro

My name is pinnwela
Im kind of story teller
My friend now can u tell us
Why do Im talking accapella
(Well, there are some technical difficulties
Give me a second)
You wanna know what happened
I was hanging up with stars
And than I met my Shepard
He said "go down baby and have a good fun
But dont u ever forget what I am telling u now
I give u voice and wisdom
I give u body and soul
I give mother and father
I give u sister and home
But its not just because I have it too much
You will bring down some light now I'll just strike a match
So swallow it now and go down to be born
But remember the light is not only your own
I give it to anyone that I send down to the earth
And if u putted it out somehow ask for help
(I think I still have it
So Im not asking
Im just thankful
Im gonna share it
I want to share it
I will share it through the music
So try to receive it
Be ready
Im coming)
