

Pip Millett, Ride With Me

It's like the water was never rain,
We can go over and over again and again,
Another beginning,
Wishing for fruit at the edge of this fountain,
I hope that my money throws me all in,
I'm breaking my back just tryna get it back to another beginning,
I fear I see an ending near.

You gotta let me know that you're sorry,
Tryna brush it off don't do it for me,
You gotta let me know that you're sorry,
For everything if everything was your fault.

You gotta let me know that you're sorry,
Tryna brush it off don't do it for me,
You gotta let me know that you're sorry,
For everything if everything was your fault.

You gotta let me know that you're sorry,
Tryna brush it off don't do it for me,
You gotta let me know that you're sorry,
For everything if everything was your fault.

Thinkin I'll come round in the morning,
Maybe then I'd understand your story,
Thinkin I'll come round in the morning,
Guess again 'cause everything was your fault.

Held up,
Holding it against ya,
Couldn't even put the sentence together,
Take a back seat,
You don't get to ride with me (you don't get to ride with me no)

Wait up,
Not holding my breath much,
Too proud to make amends with me,
Take a back seat,
You don't get to ride with me (take a back seat, you don't get to ride with me no).

Greatness turns into pain,
In the best of a moment it's broken again,
Another beginning,
Sounding much better than soothing this tormented hope,
Throw me all in,
I'd break my back,
Tryna get it back,
To be a better ending,
At least there's nothing else to fear.

You gotta let me know that you're sorry,
Tryna brush it off don't do it for me,
You gotta let me know that you're sorry,
For everything if everything was your fault.

Thinkin I'll come round in the morning,
Maybe then I'd understand your story,
Thinkin I'll come round in the morning,
Guess again 'cause everything was your fault.

Held up,
Holding it against ya,
Couldn't even put the sentence together,
Take a back seat,

You don't get to ride with me (you don't get to ride with me no)

Wait up,
Not holding my breath much,
Too proud to make amends with me,
Take a back seat,
You don't get to ride with me (you don't get to ride with me no).

(You don't get to ride no no,
You don't get to ride no no,
You don't get to ride with me,
No no no no no no nah nah,
You don't get to ride with me,
Go go on)
