Pipedown, Risin' Up

Why lives are cast in the waves of days
Numbness feeling redemption - wakes the pain
King factory setting rates of fate
Unattended infections
Wise up, time to testify
Wise up, time to mystify
Wise up, time for us to try
Reversing alienation

I'M DROWNING, into abstraction
I'M DROWNING, down to where we wanna be
I'M DROWNING, into abstraction
I'M FLAILING OUT

We're gonna rise up 'til we suffer, going to rise up to our knees They're gonna let us rise up 'til we suffer, going to rise up to our knees They're gonna let us rise up 'til we suffer, going to rise up to our knees They're gonna let us rise up 'til we suffer, going to rise up to our knees But I'm gonna stand

White towers of bits - stacked into the flames Lies for turning dissention builds the day Wiped mind of the modern age Cries for something to mention Wise up, to the trampled mind Wise up, time to realign Wise up, to the chalking line Mark the death of aggression

I'M DROWNING, into abstraction
I'M DROWNING, down to where we wanna be
I'M DROWNING, into abstraction
I'M FLAILING OUT

We're gonna rise up 'til we suffer, going to rise up to our knees They're gonna let us rise up 'til we suffer, going to rise up to our knees They're gonna let us rise up 'til we suffer, going to rise up to our knees They're gonna let us rise up 'til we suffer, going to rise up to our knees But I'm gonna stand

It's doesn't have to be this way Break the bottled dissention Wage the war-tearing normalcy Explosion causing attention

Tear down the factory
Tear down the factory
Tear down the factory
Give back our broken lives
Tear down the factory
Tear down the factory
Tear down the factory
Tear down the limits of your life
