

Piper Billie, Girlfriend

D.Rambo/J.Richmond

I saw you jump up

You and your friends, baby

And i heard you say they're playing a jam

(There's a jam right here, baby)

So waving your hand

>From side to side, sugar

Hear you're claiming you're a certified man

(Certified)

I know it might sound strange

But I pictured us alone

And you're kissing me in ways I can't tell - no

If my thoughts of you are true

Then I wanna get with you

So I'll step in while I'm given the chance - yeah

Chorus:

Do you have a girlfriend? (Do you have a girlfriend?)

You're looking real cool (You're looking real cool)

Can I have you're number? (Can I have you're number?)

You don't have a thing to lose

Do you have a minute? (Do you have a minute?)

What is on your mind? (What is on your mind?)

I was just thinking (I was just thinking)

We can spend some time

Heard a slow song

You don't waste time baby

And you asked me if I wanted to dance

(Sure I wanna dance)

Playing hard to get

Takes too long, sugar

So I told my friends that I found a man

(You're the one)

I know it might sound strange

But I pictured us alone

And you're kissing me in ways I can't tell - no

If my thoughts of you are true

Then I wanna get with you

So I'll step in while I'm given the chance

(Chorus)

Do ya, do ya, do ya have a girlfriend?

You're looking real cool

Do ya, do ya, do ya have a minute?

I was just thinking

Do ya, do ya, do ya have a girlfriend

We could spend some time

Do ya, do ya, do ya have a minute?

Are you all alone?

A-ha, a-ha

I know it might sound strange

But I pictured us alone

And you're kissing me in ways I can't tell - no

If my thoughts of you are true

Then I wanna get with you

So I'll step in while I'm given the chance

(Repeat chorus to fade)
