

Pirates Of The Mississippi, Fighting For You

I don't know, If I can recover,
How can we be friends, if we cant be lovers,
It's killing me, thinking of you with him

Call it Pride, call it stubborn,
But I won't give up, til i know theres no other way,
To start all over again.

Cause there's just so much one man can take,
Even the strongest heart can break
When the tears start to roll
It's like like trying to hold back the Sea.

But I won't give up, you know how I am
I'll fight til I fall, and make one more stand
How can I loose
Fighting for You

Cause there's just so much one man can take
Even the strongest hears can break
When the tears start to roll
It's like trying to hold back the sea

But I wont give up, you know how I am
I'll fight til I fall, and make one more stand
How can I loose,
Fighting for you

Tell me how can I loose,
Fighting for you
