

Pissed Jeans, Romanticize Me

So you wanna tell me that I'm lazy?
I'm really just your laid-back man
So you're trying to find where the spark went?
Well I'll get around to that when I can
Take all my faults and twist them in your head
'Til I look like a sweet and thoughtful man
Romanticize me

So you're waiting, wondering when i'll wake up?
When it comes to sleeping, I'm a talented man
You wish I'd whisper that I love you?
Just imagine it's there in everything I am
Take all my faults and twist them in your head
'Til I look like a sweet and thoughtful man
Romanticize me

If you're trying to feel better
There's one thing you can do
Take all of your dreams
And pretend they came true

See I'm really kind of wonderful
It's all about the way you choose to view it
So you should be really thankful
When I say "Come on, let's do it"
