

Pissing Razors, Perseverance

I don't understand why you could lose faith so soon we will persevere through feed the line twisted untrue see and realize how high be the existence to fly climb the infinite unwind how can you be so blind to the things before you perseverance is my way of life, i don't question my road when i see the light a light once dim is now shining right, bright enough to keep up the fight to give up now is so absurd, we've come so far farther than most lack of vision fucking open your eyes, only then you will realize
