

Pissing Razors, Truth in Disguise

You realize and compromise the ways of life
Your selfish lies
And true disguise
are ment for greed

Telling me we will survive
it's hard to believe Confide before demise
And then you will see

Your truth in disguise (X 2)

hide before your vision of longevity
Face the consequence of what is not real

Do you realize the sincerity
this life holds balance
You can't control me

Your truth in disguise (X 2)

Everything is for yourself you need not reveal Disguise the truth - changing the deal it's time to think twice before you steal
two faced bastard
I will bring you down
