

Pistol Grip, P.O.W.

I prayed everyday while I was stuck in this hole
But no god ever came to save my soul
I was conflicted in beliefs I was scared of the wrath Locked in this cell no questions asked

P.O.W. my jugular bled, they spent eleven fucking years trying to drill in my head

P.O.W. I spit on your crown, they spent eleven fucking years
slowly breakin me down

P.O.W. I'd rather be dead, then spend eleven fucking years with you drilling my head

P.O.W. I spit on your crown, they spent eleven fucking years
slowly breakin me down

I was too young to be in your crusade
I should have had a choice but it was yours to make I'm no longer sane I'll never be the same
One more year I'll put a bullet in my brain

Water and bread, you could never starve me
Did what you said, you could never change me Know your stealth, you'll never win
Now lets drink to my health
Here's to all the fallen souls

No law, no god, no government saw
The deception and depletion of my life force gone
