

Piston, Grey Flap

Time never was as they are for me
I'm happiest in a world full of error
Time breaks my heart
changed my soul again this time my friend

Excuse me if i'm wrong but I need some encouraging
Thank you for being so bold
So catch me when I fall see I need your touch beside me
Thank you for being so bold

And armed with your luck that's my fault I see
And safe in your world full of time full of pressure
Time breaks my heart
Changed my soul again this time my friend

Excuse me if wrong but I need some encouraging
Thank you for being so bold
So catch me when I fall see I need your touch beside me
Thank you for being so bold

oooh oooh oooh ooooh aahh

Sometimes I feel like waking up
Sometimes I feel like changing
But it's oh so easy to say
When your brain is not inside your ass

Excuse me if I'm wrong but I need some encouraging
Thank you for being so bold
So catch me when I fall see I need your touch beside me
Thank you for being so bold

Excuse me if I'm wrong but I need some encouraging
Thank you for being so bold
So catch me when I fall see I need your touch beside me
Thank you for being so bold
