

Pivitplex, Some Will Fall

She came to me with a makeshift smile
We sat and talked and she cried awhile
She said, "It's hard to find the strength to go on,
This world is bringing me down.
See, yesterday it was a guessing game,
And today it feels like more of the same."
She finds it hard to find the strength to go on
This life is bringing me down

Chorus;
How can she forget
The killing words that cut her up from the inside
Took one moment of down guard
The world came crashing down on her and
She had no where to go the day has come
When you're the object on display in the gallery
They may watch from the outside but listen
I'm here saying come on now hang on
Hang on now
