P-I-Z-Z-I-C-A-T-O Five!

when the angels smile
love begins
as the angels smile
love is alright
it will be alright

this morning
just before I woke up
I had this short dream
I can't remember it
very well just in flashes

those angels whispered
whispered in my ears
wondrous love words
I thought I knew from somewhere

it is a bright
morning
just like all the others but I sort of feel different for no apparent reason I'm just happy
it's like today
is the day
to begin a new love

when the angels smile etc
love begins
when the angels smile
love is alright

this strange hunch
in the new morning
this wonderful hunch

as the phone rings
I can tell from the sound
it is you
some strange news

you whisper
in my ear
wonderful love words I'd been waiting for

in the looking-glass I'm putting on
this brand-new
shirt
I don't know why
I like myself today
more than usual
it's like
the first day of a new season

a new love begins
as the angels kiss
two people make love
the camera goes on

a strange hunch
in a new morning
a wonderful hunch

in the light
I'm hugging
myself
today
don't know why
I feel like crying
it's just like
the beginning of
a new love today
like that dream
I once saw is now
becoming reality

love begins
on this new morning
a new love
