do you remember
the first day of our love?
it ought not to be
such an old story
where was the party
where we happened to meet?
what did we talk about?
about rare records?
don't you remember
my hair style?
is the only thing you remember
our kiss that night?

where's our love
now, what will happen to us ?
forgetting myself
feeling blue
my heart's ready to break
but
please
pretend not to know
the answer yet

then, the next day
we fell in love
do you believe in
love at first sight?
unbridled love is
quite like a rodeo
where did you park
your little red car that night?

Our love goes on
but what will
tomorrow bring?
I feel like I want to
throw open a big window
and scream
but nobody can
see the future

soon our love will end
is it destiny?
will this throbbing thrill
suddenly fade away?
I want us to keep the world warm forever, but where's your little red car going to now?

feeling blue
my heart's ready to break
lovers
keep repeating
these questions without an answer
