if someday we
fall out of love
and
break up
it's sad but
that's the work of god nothing you can do about it
it's the work of god

and the two of us
won't love each other
we'll grow
distant

it's sad but
that's the way things happen there's no way out of it
it's the work of god

it's sad but
that's destiny
nothing you can do
c'est la vie
