Placebo, B3

I refuse to remain in regret To pander like a slave to your wants No contrition from me will you get No submission to dilettantes

I've existed too long in secret I have lived like a man confined Epicene and elaborate Fatalistic and resigned

Passionflower Catherine wheel Higher power Help me start to heal

Now I vein in the scene of sunsets And the rain washes clean my mind Every one of my needs will be met Every planet will be aligned

Passionflower Catherine wheel Higher power Help me start to heal

Over power all my fear Now to power Guide me through the realm

I refuse to remain in regret I refuse to be left behind

Passionflower Catherine wheel Higher power Help me start to heal
