

Places To Park, Part Of It

nothing to lose, shot down, just don't forget you were part of it remember what you said and take another drink to clear your head when you put everything on hold you got nothing to say about the old so let's sit back and enjoy the ride remember what we said, we won't look back and have regrets when we put everything on hold we got nothing to say about the old
