

Places To Park, Slow Down

of all the times why did it have to be now and why are you so scared to feel because it's starting to show I know that it's too good to end but look who saw the ending now watch out, you're setting yourself up: look at you, look at yourself by the way, it's ok

the feeling it will come back, the feeling has the right to stay

I know you feel it somehow, just don't say it out loud I know you've seen it somehow, just don't say it's now
