

Plain White T's, Let's Pretend

If you really gotta know, I'm not doing so good.
Turned out to hurt more then I thought it would.

'Cos i just can't handle losing you again but the last thing I want is to just be friends we've been through the same thing time and time again

Let's pretend.
(Let's pretend everythings fine)
put on our fake smiles and keep wasting our time
Let's pretend we're fine
Go out in style and come home in denial
let's pretend we're fine

let's pretend we're fine

lie to ourselves
lie to everyone else

take anymore of this make-believe romance is killing my make-believe mind (its killing my make-believe mind) but i rather pretend we're together then know we're apart

Let's pretend.
(Let's pretend everythings fine)
put on our fake smiles and keep wasting our time
Let's pretend we're fine
Go out in style and come home in denile
let's pretend we're fine
