

Plain White T's, Sing My Best

wake up in the morning
long way from home
alarm clock is a warning im still alone
set up for a letdown opened my eyes
new name for the same town it's no suprise

its another rough day alright but i cant wait til tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight i cant wait til tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight

another day grey skies bring the storm in things never change stare out of the window through tired eyes
so hard just to let go
it's no suprise

that its another rough day alright
but i cant wait til tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight

tonight i'll get up on that stage and all my problems seem to go away tonight i'll get up in those lights and i will sing my best for you tonight

No i cant wait til tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
i cant wait til tonight...
