

Plain White T's, Unconditional Love

unconditional love,
let me tell you something.
i love you just the same,
if not a little more.

so you want me to write,
but let me tell you something.
i won't change my ways,
you better find a better way,

to speak to me,
to talk to me,
to treat me like a human being.

to speak to me,
to talk to me,
to treat me like a human being.

uncontrollable love,
let me tell you something.
if speeds at my control,
you better hang on for your life.

you complain of hungry holes, it takes me to satisfy.

to speak to me,
to talk to me,
to treat me like a human being.

to speak to me,
to talk to me,
to treat me like a human being.
