

Plain White T's, Young Tonight

I know, I know we've been bouncing feelings back and forth
I know, I know it's tied up, but we're about to score
Scotty's face down naked in the pool, Suzy's sniffing white out
Spent the whole night chasing after you, such a perfect night out

Just a couple midnight lovers
Trying to do it just right for each other

It's all, it's alright
We're gonna get old, but we're young tonight
It's all, it's alright
We're gonna get old, but we're young tonight

Seventeen bucks in my bank account, couple mill' on my walls
Two la bombas if you take 'em out, into love, I might fall
I know, I know she's even more thick than my skull
I know, I know, 'bout to do the impossible

Just a couple midnight lovers
Trying to shine so bright for each other

It's all, it's alright
We're gonna get old, but we're young tonight
It's all, it's alright
We're gonna get old, but we're young tonight

Young tonight
We're young tonight
Young tonight
We're young tonight

Gonna do it all wrong, gonna make mistakes
Gonna screw it all up, it'll be ok

It's all, it's alright
We're gonna get old, but we're young tonight
It's all, it's alright
We're gonna get old, but we're
It's all, it's alright
We're gonna get old, but we're young tonight
It's all, it's alright
We're gonna get old, but we're young tonight

Young tonight
We're young tonight
Young tonight
We're young tonight
