

Planeside, Chrome Stiletto

Stabbed in the back
For less than that
And now it's payback
For secrets you passed
Right along to everyone when i play dumb
I'm not fooling anyone

I've got to tie up all you try to undo
Sit back and wait for my cue
You wouldn't believe what's up my sleeve
So here's my resignation
You wanted the truth to prove you wrong
Now that the feeling's gone

*Chorus

Give it up now/Give it in now/Give it away
Give it up now/Give it in now/Give it away
Figure out who's side your taking and think of something to say
To save your 2 faces

You've got a rap
I know about that
You've got your past
Avoiding confrontation don't waste my time on a settlement
My temper isn't obvious i'll take my time i'm better off

*Chorus x2

Give it up now/Give it now/Give it away
