

Planet Funk, Everyday

Just when I'm thinkin it was always you
The sun has gone and let the rain come through
The things I'm hearin I've already heard
But now I'm walkin in a different world
Just when I'm feelin like I'd made it through
And still had somethin that they never knew
The artificial is controllin me
And I dont' recognise a thing I see

And when it gets too late, I'll be chasing you home
And when it gets too late, I'll be chasing you home

Is this the dawning of a vacant age
I'm turnin over to a ripped up page
You look around with every step you take
'Cos someone's watchin every move you make
Is this the morning we've been waiting for
You think you're walking through a shining door
You wait for nothing and it never comes
At least you know you're not the only one

And when it gets too late, I'll be chasing you home
And when it gets too late, I'll be chasing you home

Everything I needed
Everyday I know

And when it gets too late, I'll be chasing you home
And when it gets too late, I'll be chasing you home
I'll be chasing you home
