

Planet Funk, We Turn

How could I
Have known
All the reasons
And the consequence
If I
Could explain
Would have told you, told you, told you

From the start
Should embrace
The confusion
Brings a confidence
And each passing day
Leads me
Further and further and further
Further away

We Turn
And we turn
And we turn
And give it away

And we turn
And we turn
And we turn
And give it away

I said I, I can't Lie
I can't tell you that
I won't lose my head
But for now
It's safe to say
That I'm over, over, over
Over the worst

And tomorrow just means
As much as yesterday
And right here
And right now
Is all that, all that, all that
All that there is

We Turn
And we turn
And we turn
And give it away

And we turn
And we turn
And we turn
And give it away
