

Planet Shakers, Out Of Me

I've been quiet for way too long
It's time to make a sound
It's time to let it all out
In my heart is a rising song
A song of victory
Of all You've done for me

What can I say You blow me away

Throwing off restraint
I'll praise You recklessly
Coz I want the world to see
I want the world to see Your glory
Fill me up so much that You
Bust out of me
Coz I want the world to see
I want the world to see Your glory
