

Planet Smashers, Shame

All the lies and turned up eyes stares like they're to blame
It seems you're trying to control but you can't trick me this way

Shame, hey, I won't play your game, Hey, they're driving me away, Hey, I won't fall for your actions of deceit, Driven by your misery and shame

Getures of kindness manipulate for your benifits, Acting like your unaware but it's not hard to miss Off-hand comments fill my hand with things I can't explain, Silent sneers and crocodile tears rolling down the drain

Shame, hey, I won't play your game,

Hey, they're driving me away,

Hey, I won't fall for your actions of deceit,

Driven by your misery and shame

Yeah I try, not to let it shows, as this felling in me grows,

Subtle words twist the knife with the things that they don't say

Don't want to feel this way

I won't feel this way

I won't feel your shame x13

Shame hey I won't play your game, shame, your driving me away, hey, I won't fall for your actions of deceit, triggered by your misery and shame, hey,

I won't play your game, shame, your driving me away, hey, I won't play your game hey, I won't feel no shame
