

Planetshakers, Rain Of Heaven

Let the rain of Heaven
Be poured out in this place
Let the earth be flooded
With Your mercy and Your grace
Open up the Heavens in this place
Let it rain, let it rain

Lord our hearts are thirsty
Our passion is renewed
Longing for the waters
That only come from You
Open up the Heavens in this place
Let it rain, let it rain

Cause I am thirsty for the waters
That only come from You
Flowing from the mighty river
That flows out from Your throne

Come now, O Holy Spirit
Rain down, rain down
Thirsty for a touch from Heaven
Rain down on us

Here we are waiting
With one heart
One mind, and one accord
Let the fire from Heaven
Fall on us now
With power to overcome
