

Plankeye, Scared Of Me

And I landed here
you took the fall
its funny how the backdoors swing on call and the lessons Ive learned end in depressed
is it the same way with you my friend?
and Im not scared
scared of you
I think Ill stay in I didnt lie
the man that I turned into last night
so many words
that I cant take back
scared of me
scared of me, yeah
cuz all the backdoors are calling
so loudly to me
its just you and me
and the distance between your car seats and CDs and Id like to reach across and touch your bliss
but Im too far, again
scared of me
scared of me, yeah
so loudly to me
and all the backdoors are calling out and all the backdoors are calling so loudly, yeah
scared of me
Sometimes
you can steal the blue
from your own eyes
sometimes
you can steal the blue
sometimes
