

Plastic, Lazy Day

Stop,
Now I need a break,
I've had too much to take,
too much for everyone.

But now,
now is the time for us,
till the day will pass by... (bye bye)
Just you and me in the sun.

Because this life goes too fast, too fast,
and many awesome things I've lost.
I know that I can't catch up the time.
I'm only trying to prepare for another while.

Lazy day,.
I really need one lazy day.
I need to stop and think about some things.
I don't want anymore.

Stop,
nothing's gonna change,
nothing's gonna flow,
nothing seems too slow.

look!
You have to look around!
How many things I found only slowing down...

because this life goes too fast?

Lazy day,
I really need that lazy day.
I need to stop and think about some things.
I don't want anymore.
