

Platinum Blonde, Automatic Drive

Satisfied we can't turn back
My heart starts racing to attack
If money's all that we can find
Our bill of rights is still unsigned (VOID)
Save me from breaking down in flight
Hold me till the flames are out of sight

I will shift into
Automatic Drive
Until we make it through
To the other side
I will shift into. . . Automatic Drive

Change don't change, don't rearrange Without your lace, I'm still the same (same ol boy)
Your puppet strings, and all those things
I've thrown away your diamond rings (Drive)
